Eyton Church in Wales Primary School
Newsletter – 8th June 2018

Welcome back after half-term to our final term of 2017/2018. Whilst it is an exciting time for the children with the new school year ahead of them and lots of fun activities/trips planned, it is also a very busy time for staff. Please help us by returning any consent slips back into school and letting us know about any change of contact numbers should we need to get in touch in an emergency.

Diary Dates (these are also on the calendar on our website www.eytonprimary.co.uk – keep up to date by registering your email address)

29th June - No uniform day – Sumer Fair
3rd July - Children's Day, Llangollen Eisteddfod

Miss Harrison

Miss Harrison is going to leave us in July to start up a new ALN teacher post at another school in Wrexham. We are all absolutely delighted for her, she is an excellent teacher and deserves the opportunity to further her career in a larger school. We would all like to thank her for all of her hard work and know that she will be sorely missed. We all wish Miss Harrison well in her future career.

The governing body are currently in the process of recruiting another high quality teacher to the school. It will be an exciting time ahead for the school, which will benefit from a new teacher with fresh ideas joining the excellent team we have at Eyton School.

Summer Fair

Our summer fair this year is 29th June. Don't book any holidays in Wales this day as it will surely rain (besides, you would miss all the fun of our fair!). Get practicing your weird & wonderful cake recipes for our cake stall, staff at school will be happy to do a free taster session!

Children are invited to come in their own clothes on 29th June - please can we equal the fantastic efforts of the bottle donations and bring in a donation of chocolate for our tombola.

School Meals theme day

Throughout the year our school meals service arrange themed days, the last one being for the royal wedding. Next Friday (15th June) we are having a "funfair" themed meal with hotdogs, beef burgers, and doughnuts. Junior meals are £2.40 and infants £2.35. Posters are on our reception door with more details.
