

Colour mixing

We went on a scavenger hunt around the school grounds and collected a variety of natural items in lots of different colours. When we got back to school, we used paint to see if we could mix a colour that matched the item. We did a super job!

