

The Mystery of the Tangled Tinsel

Instructions

A serious crime has been committed in Lapland. It is a week before Christmas and Santa is getting ready for the big light switch on tomorrow evening, but the lights and decorations have been found in a terrible tangle.

As the Detective Chief Inspector, it is your job to find out who has ransacked the decorations. Your officers have taken down the names and descriptions of the 30 elves who were tasked with decorating the town and, most importantly, the giant Christmas tree.

There are also five top secret clues that have been left. To crack the case, you will need to solve each clue and check the information with the list of names.

Good luck!

Clue 1 - Advent Adverbials

The elves have been writing about Christmas but some have forgotten where the commas should be! Check which ones are correct. If they are, give them a tick. If they are incorrect, give them a cross. If you have more ticks, the culprit is a female.

If you have more crosses, the culprit is a male.

Advent Adverbial	✓ or x
While, we make the presents we often sing together.
Late on Christmas Eve, Santa can be seen flying through the sky.
With care and attention all of the presents are made, in Santa's workshop.
Like beautiful jewels the lights, sparkle on Santa's giant Christmas tree
Flying across the sky, Santa and the reindeer rush to deliver all the gifts in time.
Under the tree lots of beautifully wrapped presents, wait to be opened.
After a busy night Santa, and the reindeer enjoy a long holiday.

There were _____ crosses and _____ ticks.
 There were more _____ so the culprit is male / female.

Clue 3

Santa's Relative Clauses

Santa has been reading the police descriptions of the elves but has noticed that many of the relative pronouns are missing! Can you fill in the gaps with who, whose or which?

If you use who most, the culprit is short.

If you use whose most, the culprit is medium.

If you use which most, the culprit is tall.

Sentence with Relative Pronoun Missing	Who, Whose or Which?
Elvis Elf, _____ wears a yellow outfit, works in the design section.
Poinsettia Pine, _____ favourite Christmas decorations are baubles, is remarkably tall for an elf.
Snowflake Satin wears a green outfit, _____ is too big for her because she is quite short.
Delight Dimples collects stars, _____ are her favourite Christmas decorations.
Lulu Love, _____ is very tall, is usually given the job of putting the star on top of the Christmas tree.
Angel Applepie always wants to put angels, _____ are her favourite decoration, at the top of tree.
Glitter Glimmer wears a blue outfit, _____ is a bit short on her because she is exceptionally tall for an elf.

I used who _____ times.
I used whose _____ times.
I used which _____ times.

I used _____ most so the culprit is short / medium / tall.

Clue 4 - Silly or Sensible Synonyms?

Match the words the silly elves use to describe their jobs to the actual job titles. Whichever one has the most synonyms is the job of the culprit.

planning      producing      making      bundling      packing constructing      tying      sketching      assembling building      drafting

The word with the most synonyms is _____, so that is the culprit's job in the workshop.

Clue 5 - Present Prefixes

With all the chaos this police investigation has caused, these presents have been muddled up!
In order to help sort them for delivery, you need to match them to the correct verb prefix.

Whichever verb prefix has the most words with it will reveal the colour of the culprit's outfit.

dis-

mis-

The prefix I used the most was _____, so the culprit's outfit is _____.
