Music lessons

We have had such a response to the children wishing to take part in music lessons. We have been able to start with some children but are in the progress of arranging extra lessons to fit everyone in.

Seren Hughes

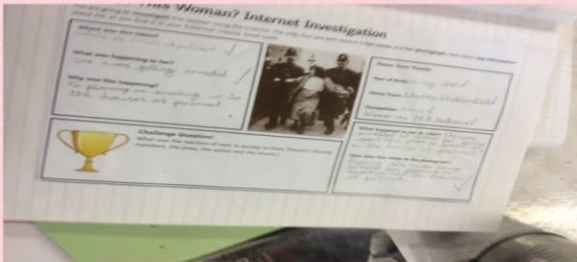

We wrote our targets for maths, reading and writing.

In maths we did rounding to the nearest 10, 100, 1000.

DOSBARTH GLYNDWR

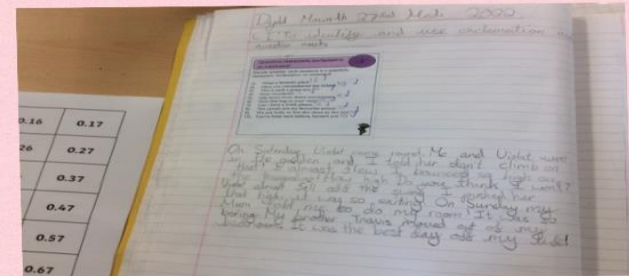

Week 4 By Lily and Tomos

We learnt about the suffragettes and feminism. We talked about women's rights and how the laws have changed in the last century.

We learnt about rounding decimal numbers.

In literacy we were recapping question and exclamation marks, statements and commands.
